

SHOPPING

Get the best chocolate

Neuhaus, reputed to be the best chocolate in the world, is now available at the world's largest duty-free chocolate shop at the Kuala Lumpur International Airport.

Neuhaus from Belgium started making chocolates in 1857 and is said to be the creator of pralines. It is the oldest chocolate producer in Belgium and the most innovative and uses the finest natural ingredients with a high percentage of cocoa and minimum sugar.

It produces more than 3,000 tons of chocolate each year and makes over 100 varieties of chocolate pralines, bars and novelty items using the techniques and recipes developed by its founder, Jean Neuhaus.

For the first time in Asia, the full range of factory-fresh Neuhaus chocolates are readily available at Choc Stop located at the Satellite building of the airport. The exclusive range is air-flown weekly to Choc Stop.

At Choc Stop, chocolates from all over the world, including Lindt, Nestle, Toblerone, Frey, Swiss Delice, Guylian, Droste, Cadbury, Hershey, Jacquot, Jacali and Ferrero Rocher, are available.

Choc Stop occupies 1,998 sq ft of retail space and has more than 1,000 varieties of chocolates on its shelves. It is run by DR Group Holdings Sdn Bhd.

BEST IN THE WORLD ...
Belgium's Neuhaus chocolates are now available at the Choc Stop in the Satellite building of the Kuala Lumpur International Airport.

